

Giving: An outward expression of releasing something that is yours to bless someone else while having an attitude of appreciation and love.

Scripture: 2 Corinthians 9:8-11, "God can pour on the blessings in astonishing ways so that you're ready for anything and everything, more than just ready to do what needs to be done. This most generous God who gives seed to the farmer that becomes bread for your meals is more than extravagant with you. He gives you something you can then give away, which grows into full-formed lives, robust in God, wealthy in every way, so that you can be generous in every way, producing with us great praise to God."

Decree: I decree that I rely on God to supply my needs. I give in abundance to bless others and discover His faithfulness to give me power to make wealth.

Decree: I decree that my obedience will bring blessings to everything I put my hands to. I believe that as a child of God, He grants me abundant prosperity.

Decree: I decree as I give, the windows of Heaven will be open and God will rebuke the devourer for my sake. I am blessed financially and receive an overflow as I align with His purposes.

Decree: As I give, it breaks worry and fear knowing that God supplies all my needs richly and abundantly, therefore, I am able to sow freely and liberally.

Decree: I decree that as I give I partner with God's Kingdom to see His love and faithfulness given to others.

Decree: I decree wholeness and fullness of life that is promised to those who bless others and cling to Jesus.

Decree: I decree that as I give I open my heart to receive the flow of God's blessings. I delight in funding the Kingdom and I ask that You make me a catalyst for Kingdom transformation.

Decree: I decree that I live generously before You and those around me.
