

Blessings: "Blessing is an agreement with the Word of the Lord, and that truth remains regardless of feelings or situation. So when we bless others with our mouths it is an investment into our inherited blessings."

"The power of Blessing" by Kerry Kirkwood

Prayer: I bless you today by the heart and power of the Holy Spirit. I release upon you God's goodness and favor. I release upon you the oil of joy and the presence of God. May the Father's good pleasure be upon you for He delights in and desires you.

Decree: I am vibrant with life. I am strong, competent and loyal.

Decree: I illuminate gracefulness, valor, and strength.

Decree: I am solid, immovable, and unchangeable in my faith.

Decree: I am fully connected, confident, and grateful for my God.

Decree: I recognize the mercies of God upon my life and I celebrate with a new level of hope.

Decree: I will live a supernatural life with the power of the Holy Spirit as I'm obedient to the Word of God.

Decree: My appointed time is now. I will embrace my destiny with vigor and great excitement.
