

Contentment: An inward trust and peace of mind of the divine promise that all my needs, desires and expectations will be fulfilled.

Scripture: Job 36:11, "If they obey and serve him, they will spend the rest of their days in prosperity and their years in contentment."

Decree: I decree all I acquire or gain is a result of your promises and I have full peace and assurance in my giving.

Decree: I decree as I obey your direction in my financial decisions you release a surplus for an expected and plentiful harvest.

Decree: I acknowledge the reality of your blessings that come upon me as I follow and obey your Word. I declare your mighty hand moving now on my behalf.

Decree: I decree it is your pleasure to give to your children and I receive all with joy and thankfulness.

Decree: I decree freedom from worry and anxiety because I am a giant slayer and a champion in the Kingdom of God.

Decree: I decree my soul shall rest and be satisfied knowing I am more than a conqueror and born to be free.

Decree: I decree as I give that you shall supply all my needs, satisfy me and bring that inward rest and peace.

Decree: I decree that I live a life full of peace, prosperity and rest knowing that you will work all things for my good.
