

Scripture: John 6: 63 The Spirit gives life; the flesh counts for nothing. The words I have spoken to you—they are full of the Spirit and life. (NIV)

Blessings: Blessing is filled with His intentions for your life that are backed up by His written Word, but it is released as a catalyst when it is spoken or prayed. When we use the Word of God to declare blessing over a person or situation. The Spirit is released to work accordingly to the blessing of the Lord." The power of Blessing" by Kerry Kirkwood

Prayer: May God's favor and blessings come upon you. May your full destiny come upon you! May you be promoted and blessed in the Kingdom of God and also here on earth. May the God of blessings overtake you.

Decree: I am equipped with power and might and shall arise as a kingdom warrior.

Decree: I decree bravery and courage to motivate the world changer inside of me.

Decree: I am full of mercy and grace and I overflow with love.

Decree: The peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard my heart and my mind in Christ Jesus.

Decree: I pray with confidence and assurance that I hear my Father God's voice clearly and obey without hesitation.

Decree: I decree I am an ambassador of hope. I take refuge in the assurance of the one who gives hope.
