

Seed: Offering sown with faith, purpose and a destiny vision.

Scripture: II Corinthians 9:5, "Now this I say: the one sowing sparingly will also reap sparingly. And the one sowing for blessings will also reap for blessings." (DLNT)

I Decree that as I sow my seed, I consecrate it under the rule & reign of God to be used for His Kingdom Purpose.

I Decree that my seed is planted in good earth and I embrace the harvest beyond all I could ask, dream or fathom.

I Decree that I am an overcomer! I am empowered and have an amazing inheritance from my God. I have favor and wisdom to sow in faith.

I Decree I will never be satisfied with mediocrity. God gives me eyes to recognize opportunities to make wealth.

I Decree as I put my trust in God that He will fill me with joy and peace so that I may overflow with hope by the power of the Holy Spirit.

I Decree that my hope is in you, Lord! I stay in agreement with your principles and your potential to create blessings for a life of destiny fulfillment.

I Decree that I accept that God has a specific plan for my life. I have important work to do! So as I give, I am led by God towards my destiny plan.

I Decree that as I sow, my character will be built and tested to be made perfect and will position me correctly to fulfill my purpose.

I Decree that my perception of God is pure and Holy. He makes a way for me to prosper for the blessings of the Lord bring wealth.

I Decree that I am a success! Quitting is not an option. I decree creative ideas and actions for new concepts to bring wealth to the Kingdom of God.
