

Stewardship: The responsible oversight, protection and management of Kingdom finances.

Scripture: Hebrews 13:5, "Let your manner of living be without covetousness, and be content with such things as ye have. For He hath said, 'I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee.'" (KJV)

Decree: I decree genuine freedom from greed, compulsive spending, and ungratefulness as I am obedient to the principles You have set before me in Your Word.

Decree: I decree that I will reject foolish risks and irresponsible spending. I will not allow fear to dictate my giving as I desire to advance the Kingdom of God.

Decree: I am content in knowing God's plan for my life so I trust and listen for His divine direction with all my financial decisions.

Decree: I decree that as I recognize and accept that the silver and gold is the Lord's, He allows me to manage finances with a thankful and willing heart in His name.

Decree: I decree that I am confident and trust His love for me. He will rebuke the devourer for me. He will open windows of Heaven for me and will bless me until it overflows.

Decree: I take great care to keep my finances in order. I guard and maintain proper records and am organized with all that has been placed in my possession.

Decree: I decree that as I seek to preserve integrity in my finances, many blessings and great increase will follow me all the days of my life.

Decree: I understand that all is the Lord's and I am a steward of His possessions. I decree confidence will arise and a deeper reliance on His promises will be evident as I prosper.
